

Sunday Lunch - March - The Woodbine Inn, Waltham Abbey

This month we invited JDC Area 57 to our Sunday Lunch and chose The Woodbine Inn, a venue within easier access to Enfield, their epicentre.

The Woodbine is situated on the A121 which takes you through some nicely wooded countryside around Waltham Abbey and Epping Forest area. However, as the day turned out to be fine weather-wise half the population seemed to have turned out as well; together with walkers and dogs it made for an interesting drive!

The pub has limited car parking but opposite is additional parking which as we arrived was fortunately being cleared of travellers by the police enabling us to park next to Tony & Anthea's F Type.

A good selection of Area 57 and Area 33 cars filled the pub car park including two E types, two XK's and a modern F type.

Area 33 Members, Tony & Sian, Peter & Brenda, Norman & Irene, Tony & Anthea, Pam & Ron. Eric & Linda and new member Paul joined 14 members from Area 57 in the conservatory which had been reserved for our party. The menu was Sunday roast and very enjoyable it was; for dessert most of us took advantage of the very extensive Ice Cream menu as there must have been more than 15 varieties to choose from!

It was surprising that many of Area 57 had not frequented The Woodbine Inn before but I think the overall member's response, good food and camaraderie between the clubs suggested that we might be doing it again!

See you next time.
